Fr Charles' Notices: Trinity Sunday 11th June 2017

▪ Father Richard Hoyal – Preaching Today!

A very warm welcome today to Fr Richard who is with us for the Parish Mass.

▪ The PCC Awayday – Last Saturday

Thank You to all members of the PCC who attended the Awayday on Saturday. The day was really worthwhile and full of good conversation and discussion – as well as some great ideas. We'll see the results of this over the next few weeks and some of the ideas will be in action in the near future.

Trinity College, where the Awayday took place, was again excellent and the lunch magnificent.

▪ Bishop Mike's Visit to All Saints – Sunday 18th June 11.00am Parish Mass (and lunch)

Bishop Mike will be retiring as our Diocesan Bishop in September. In his preparation for retirement he will be engaged in minimal Diocesan activity in July and August. However, I'm delighted to say he, and Anthea, will be joining us on Sunday 18th June (Trinity One) for Parish Mass and lunch.

In addition to joining us for Mass, Bishop Mike will confirm father and son, Matthew and Adam. This is because Matthew, who is a student at Trinity Hall Cambridge, is doing exams on Wednesday!

▪ Confirmation

Our prayers go out to all our confirmation candidates this year!

Isobel, Eleanor, Ben and Oscar .

Matthew , Adam, Roseanna and James .

The Service of Confirmation is also open to the whole Bristol West Deanery, so there will be some twenty-five adults and young people being confirmed and baptised.

All are very welcome to the Confirmation Service on Wednesday 14 June 7.30pm

Confirmation Rehearsal will be on Tuesday 13 June at 7.00pm.

Confirmation Service will be on Wednesday 14 June at 7.30pm at All Saints.

▪ Trinity College Summer Placement

A warm welcome to the two student Ordinands from Trinity College. Summer placement last for the full duration of June so we'll have a good deal of time to get to know them. They are Laura Faturoti and Jordan Allen.

▪ Atrium Courtyard

As you'll see the young people from the Prince's Trust have done a great job in getting the transformation of this space underway. There's still work to be done, but it already looks a great deal better!

'undivided': Windows on the Reformation

Following the Cathedral's successful programme, Windows on Medieval Devotion, we are delighted to be running a new programme of lectures titled Windows on the Reformation. 2017 marks a significant anniversary. In October 1517 Martin Luther published his 95 Theses and unleashed a debate that led to reformation and seismic change in Christendom. This programme of lectures will not only explore ideas of Reformation but will immerse the audiences in Reformation liturgy and music. We will not only hear about the change we will see and hear it.

Tuesday 13th June, The New Liturgy, including a 1549 mass, The Very Revd Dr David Hoyle, Dean of Bristol

Tuesday 20th June, The New Music, Mark Lee, Master of the Choristers and Organist

Tuesday 27th June, Luther, The Very Revd Dr David Hoyle, Dean of Bristol

All sessions begin at 6pm in the Cathedral Chapter House. All are welcome Tickets are £4 per session, or £10 for the whole programme.
