Entrance Hymn CP 334

Awake! Awake! Fling off the night, for God has sent a glorious light,
and we who live in Christ's new day must work of darkness put away.

Awake and sing, with praises strong,
in psalm and hymn and spirit-song.
Let love our words and works renew with all that's good and right and true.

Let in the light; all sin expose to Christ, whose life no darkness knows.
Before the cross expectant kneel,
that Christ may judge, and judging, heal.

Then rise as children of the light.
Be neither proud, nor hide from sight.
Be careful how you live, and wise to sift the truth from cunning lies.

Through Christ give thanks to God, and say to other sleepers on the way:
"Awake, and rise up from the dead that Christ may shine on you instead!"

Collect

Almighty God, whose Son restored Mary Magdalene to health of mind and body and called her to be a witness to his resurrection: forgive our sins and heal us by your grace, that we may serve you in the power of his risen life: who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever

First Reading Song of Solomon 3. 1-4

Upon my bed at night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer. "I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves." I sought him, but found him not. The sentinels found me, as they went about in the city. "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?" Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

Psalm 63 Tone ii 1

MY SOUL thirsteth for thee,*

O Lord my God.

O God thou art my God, early will I seek thee;*

my soul thirsteth for thee.

My flesh also longeth after thee,*

in a barren & dry land where no wa=ter is.

Thus have I looked for thee in holi=ness,*

that I might behold thy pow-er and glory.

For thy loving kindness is better than the life itself,* my lips shall praise thee.

As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner,*

and lift up my hands in thy Name.

My soul shall be satisfied even as it were with marrow and fatness,*

when my mouth praiseth thee with joy=ful lips.

Because thou hast been my helper;*

therefore under the shadow of thy wings

will I=re-joice.

My soul hangeth upon thee;*

thy right hand hath uphold=en me.

My soul thirsteth for thee,*

O Lord my God.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation:

everything old has passed away; see,
everything has become new!

Gospel

John 20:1-2 11-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.
