Acting Dean of Bristol Cathedral

The Bishop of Bristol, Rt Revd Vivienne Faull, is delighted to announce the appointment of Revd Canon Michael Johnson as the Acting Dean of Bristol Cathedral. It follows the appointment of Very Revd David Hoyle to the Deanery of Westminster. He will conclude his time as Dean on 31 October.

Michael, who was formerly Acting Archdeacon of Bristol, will be licensed in his new role by Bishop Viv at Evensong on 1 November.

The process for nominating the next Dean of Bristol has begun. The Archbishop of Canterbury has appointed Richard Bacon Chair of the Selection Panel. He will be supported by the Crown and Archbishops' appointment secretaries. The Selection Panel includes the Bishop of Bristol and a representative of the College of Canons and of the Bishop's Council. Very Revd Jane Hedges, Dean of Norwich, has been nominated by the Archbishop of Canterbury to be the Cathedrals' Representative on the panel.

The post will be advertised and it is anticipated that the appointment, which is subject to the approval of the Prime Minister and the Queen, will be announced later in 2020. Bishop Viv said: "I am delighted that Michael has been appointed as the Acting Dean. He displayed considerable knowledge, experience and wisdom in his role as Acting Archdeacon and I am confident he will bring the necessary leadership and support to the Chapter and Cathedral team during this time of transition.

"I am particularly pleased at the appointment of Richard as Chair of the Selection Committee. Richard brings extensive professional experience of enabling good governance of third sector organisation, involvement in the life of the city of Bristol and wider diocese and a love for our cathedral."

Revd Canon Michael Johnson was previously incumbent of Wroughton for more than 20 years. During this time, he was Area Dean of Swindon and chaplain to the hospice for North Wiltshire. Since he retired from parochial ministry in 2017, he has been involved in mentoring clergy, vocations discernment, reviewing parishes in vacancy and serving on the Bristol Diocese DAC. He was Acting Archdeacon of Bristol from July 2018 to July 2019.

Dean of Westminster

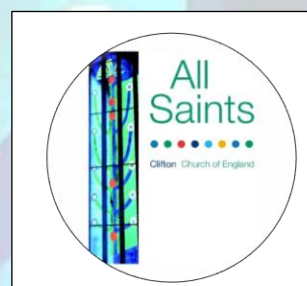

I am delighted to say that the new Dean of Westminster, the Very Revd David Hoyle, will be visiting All Saints in the New Year.

PRAYER

21 M	Mass 9.30am Pray for those working in chaplaincy roles in the Armed Forces, especially those preparing or supporting those entering active service or a war zone for the first time.
22 T	Mass 7.00pm Pray for those for whom today will be marked by the bringing of bad news: those who will face loss or disappointment; harrowing news or frightening test results. Pray that they will find peace and companionship and a way forward.
23 W	Mass 9.30am Pray for all those who are travelling long distances today: those going to new places or returning home. Pray that they will find value and inspiration in their waiting and journeying as well as in their arrival.
24 Th	Mass 7.00pm Today is United Nations Day. Pray for the work of the United Nations, its secretary General, Antonio Guterres, its officers and staff. Pray for those who work tirelessly and with attention to detail to enable peace to be maintained. Ask that they may be granted wisdom and protection in their work.
25 F	Mass 10.30am Crispin and Crispinian, martyrs c. 287. Beheaded during the reign of Diocletian, Crispin and Crispinian came from a noble Roman family, preaching by day and making shoes by night! They are consequently the patron saints of shoemakers, leatherworkers and tanners. Pray today for those who work as craftsmen and women, often keeping traditional skills and processes alive.
26 Sa	Mass 10.30am Alfred, King, scholar, 899. Cedd, Abbott, bishop, 664 Pray for those who work to bring us music: musicians in orchestras, solo artists, those working in recording studios and live venues, in concert halls and opera houses, on Radio and TV, and through the varied programme of music at All Saints. Pray especially for our own All Saints musicians and choir members under John's direction, who faithfully serve us week by week.
27 Su	Last After Trinity. Today is Bible Sunday, when the bible is given special focus in many churches across the UK. In your prayers today, use a psalm or prayer from the bible and make it central your praying.  Mass 8.00am All Age Worship 9.30am Parish Mass 11.00am Evening Prayers 6.00pm
