21st August 2022
Trinity 10 Pr 16

Last Sunday afternoon there was a celebration in Birdcage Walk to mark the 200th anniversary of the consecration of St Andrew's Church. The Church was destroyed in an air raid on 24 November 1940, just a week before the same fate befell the original All Saints. The service was led by Charles and by Paul Langham with the Lord Mayor, Paula O' Rourke, in attendance.

On the night of November 24 1941, the church fell victim to the severe bombing of Bristol by the Luftwaffe. It remained a shell for several years, the ruins being finally demolished in 1956. It had been hoped to save the tower but it was found to be unsafe and soon followed the rest of the church into oblivion. The churchyard survives, together with the path through it called Birdcage Walk.

The site of the church is marked by an inscribed stone set in the lawn. The very base of the walls survive in part. The outline of the medieval church was marked out by hedging to the south. Christ Church became the parish church of Clifton, one of eight churches carved out of the former Clifton parish in the nineteenth century.

Gifts for Ukraine

Thank you everyone who has given to the Disaster Emergency Committee in support of the people of Ukraine. The Disaster Emergency Committee is made up of thirteen member organisations including the British Red Cross and ActionAid. These organisations continue to respond to need in Ukraine and its neighbouring countries during the Russian invasion.

At All Saints each donation, big and small has been matched by the All Saints Endowment Trust pound for pound, doubling the amount raised to a magnificent £8,100.

Huge thanks goes to the Trustees for agreeing this and huge thanks also to everyone who donated to support this vital work.

Donations have been incredibly generous, each and every penny will help the people of Ukraine survive the coming winter and the hardships of war.

Food Point – Plus One Challenge !

The Sisters of the Church run a food bank in St Paul's that regularly feeds large numbers of people and also supplies the All Saints Food point. During August and into September the Sisters are closed and whilst we have plenty of pasta and some breakfast cereal, other supplies are running low.

If you are able to add one tin or packet to your weekly shop for the food point we can continue to offer people in food poverty the opportunity to make a meal and feed their families throughout the summer

ALL SAINTS PRAYERS

Mon August 22	All of us have the power to make the world a better place. Today is an internationally recognised day to carry out acts of kindness, care and support. Pray that these behaviours do not need a 'special day' to be recognised, but are regular features of the way we live.
Tue 23	Pray for all those engaged in the entertainment industries – from actors to musicians, technicians to artists, and writers to film makers.
Wed 24	Mass 10.00am Bartholomew the Apostle Pray for all those who work with land to feed mankind. Our farmers, researchers, and agricultural specialists. (Bartholomew may be translated as 'son of a ploughman').
Thurs 25	Give thanks that God's forgiveness is boundless; each one of us whoever we are and whatever we've done is accepted by God. All we need to do is say "here I am!"
Fri 26	Mass 10.00am Pray for those who continue to work for the equal treatment of women and for women's rights. Remembering in particular those parts of the world where women are subject to suppression, violence and discrimination. Recognising that no part of the world is completely free from discrimination and stereotyping.
Sat 27	Some talk of the North-South divide in the UK, King Oswald of Northumbria reigned over a huge kingdom that encompassed much of Southern Scotland and all of the North of England. Pray for economic and political equity and for the avoidance of arguments of difference to score political points.
Sunday 28	11th after Trinity  O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises. And be made partakers of your heavenly treasure;  Early Worship 9.00am  Parish Mass 10.30am

If you would like to give regularly to the Church, please set up a standing order to the church account, details below ;
