Missional Giving

The PCC has selected two charities to split the year's missional giving. As has happened quite often in the past, one is a local charity and the other international in its reach. The two charities are:

Refugee Women of Bristol

The only multi-ethnic, multi-faith organisation which specifically targets the needs of refugee women in the city, Refugee Women of Bristol is governed directly by women of the refugee and asylum-seeking communities.

Founded in 2003, the charity provides services to those considered to be over and above the generic category of 'refugee', and routinely reaches groups of women that other service-providers overlook or are unable to access

Refugee Women of Bristol offers support in a number of different ways, including online resources, life skills classes, information workshops and crèche facilities.

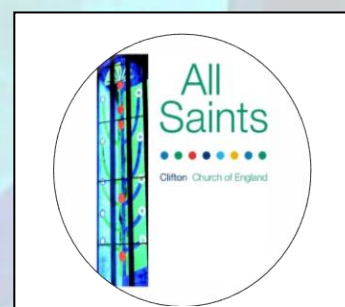

Each year the organisation supports roughly 300 refugee and asylum-seeking women and their children, from countries such as Somalia, Sudan, Iraq, Iran, Syria and Gambia.

Christian Aid - Ukraine Over the last six months, we've been working through the ACT Alliance and our local partners to support and bring hope to thousands of Ukrainians. We're working with three partner organisations in the ACT Alliance: Hungarian Interchurch Aid (HIA) in Ukraine and Hungary; the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) in Poland; and Swiss Church Aid (HEKS) in Ukraine, Hungary and Romania, to offer assistance to internally displaced peoples and to refugees. With unprecedented support so far, we've been able to distribute money to respond to a wide range of needs, including: supplying trauma kits and baby incubators; enabling cash distribution so that Ukrainians can decide their own priorities for themselves; focusing on vulnerable groups such as women, children, people with disabilities; the frail and elderly. So far, HIA have reached 26,187 people with lifesaving aid, shelter, truckloads of food (345 metric tons); water, sanitation and health support, and offering vital information for refugees and internally displaced people.

The Prayer List

Today you will notice that this week the Prayer list section is empty of names and subjects. Thought the Intercession Book does have entries that will be used during the coming week.

Please could you listen to the names mentioned in the prayers and then let the Parish Office know if anyone has been left off and which day of the week they should be included.

Remember that these prayers are used at the Daily Office as well as during Mass on Sundays and weekdays.

ALL SAINTS PRAYERS

Mon September 10	Paulinus 644 Pray for all who struggle to share the Gospel. Some to great effect and others, struggling equally hard, but with less effect. Ask that we may find ways to share our faith in our own communities and to the best of our ability
Tue 11	Ethelburga, Abbess of Barking, 675 Pray for those who work to understand and protect us from fast spreading infections. Especially those who research epidemics and pandemics. Pray for those medical staff who put their lives on the line in caring for others with serious infections (Covid 19 but also other highly infectious diseases)
Wed 12	Mass 10.00 am Elizabeth Fry, Prison Reformer, 1845 Pray for those who work to improve conditions inside prison, establish effective penal systems and find alternatives to incarceration.
Thurs 13	Edward the Confessor 1066 Edward appointed 'worldly' men to senior church positions. He favoured those who were not 'products' of the church in senior roles. Pray for clergy who are in senior roles – Bishops Viv and Lee, and all members of the House of Bishops; Archdeacons Neil and Christopher.
Fri 14	Mass 10.00 am Remember in our prayers veterinary practices – surgeons and nurses. Both small and large animal. Remember their importance to maintaining the health of our pets (for some the only companions) to the health of farm animals our source of food
Sat 15	Pray for our Bristol University and UWE students, those at BOVTS and Trinity College. Students are a key investment into the future and the current student experience is far from ideal. Pray also for all those who work in, teach at, research from and provide administration in our Tertiary Education System.
Sunday 16	18th after Trinity Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy. Early Worship 9.00am Parish Mass 10.30am
